Spooner Wins Easily.

The crowd attending the second day's races was up to yesterday's standard. In the cpening dash they had Spooner served up to them as a two to nime favorite. Miller rode Spooner and just toyed with the field until the stretch turn was reached. Here no came away and won in a gallop, from Apple Toddy, who led all the way until Spooner collared him. Marnhelmer ran well up all the way' and was third. Aristotle, on whom there was a strong place and show play, fell at the head of the stretch and threw his jockey. Morris. Neither was hurt. Fort Johnson was pulled up by Notter after running a sixteenth of a mile.

Tom Welch predicted last night at a dinner in Harry Stevens's Club-House restaurant that he would win three races to-day, and he did. Rye made the third one, well ridden by Miller, Rye was pounds the best. He came around the field at the stretch turn and picked up the leaders easily, finally catching Riffeman and going past him. Penards came fast at the end and was third. Rye was backed as if he could not loss at 7 to 10.
